A Word from our Pastor

Happy New Year! As we conclude the official Christmas season with today's feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we also celebrate this weekend the last major event that marked our hundred anniversary as a parish. We are all here because we have all been baptized and have become part of Christ's Body, the Church.

This identity is worth celebrating! The whole mystery of the Incarnation: God became like us so that we can become more like God one day in eternity. Jesus gives us one another and himself so we don't have to maneuver the Way alone.

That is why we have celebrated one hundred years of being St. Theresa Parish! Almost three hundred people attending the Saturday dinner at the Colombo Club, we connect, listen to one another, share our joys and sorrows and our faith with good food, music, prayers, and memories.

I am very grateful to the committee that steered the many facets of events, presentations and gatherings that marked this anniversary year. I will more formally thank them at the Saturday dinner and in a future bulletin. I am grateful to all of the parish staff who guided the volunteers to make these celebrations fun, light and enjoyable. I treasure the pictures that were shown on various weekends to help us remember those important Sacramental moments of our faith lives and remember those who have gone ahead of us to God's Kingdom. The laughs, sighs and reactions to the pictures is one of my favorite moments over the past year. Thanks for all who took the time to send the pictures and to Cathy Brady who put them into a great format for presentation.

By Baptism, we are claimed for Christ. May Jesus who claims us, help us with each challenge in the coming year, may he hear our prayers for peace, prosperity, and good health for all, and may he give us the joy and energy as we embark on the next hundred years!

I again thank all who sent Christmas greetings and gifts to me and the goodies that sometimes came with the goodies! Thanks to all who responded to my end of the year appeal! A full report will be given with a year end financial report, but the response has been very gratifying. May God bless you a hundredfold for every gift you have made. Statements for tax purposes will be going out soon.

I hope none of you gets sick in the coming year, but a friendly reminder to all that if you are ill, this is a very valid reason not to come to Mass on a weekend. Hopefully, all will recover from the flu, Covid and other colds going around, but someone you spread it to may not. If you have a fever, please stay home and watch the Mass live stream at home. If you have a cold, please consider wearing a mask when you come and refrain from receiving Communion from the chalice. Wash your hands often and part of being a parish family is to try and keep each other healthy.

Our annual listening sessions are approaching. Your opinion is valuable to all our staff. I am sure I will hear many comments at our dinner but will not have my pad and pen ready to record them as I do at the annual listening sessions.

Again, Happy New Year! May God bless each of you abundantly with God's transforming love!
