St. Theresa Parish Goal - $35,800

A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

We are always on a journey through life to the Lord. This is what the Mardi Gras parade in New Orleans represents and the weekly procession to the altar to begin Mass, offer our gifts and receive Holy Communion is about. Communion, together with each other that follows Jesus own example to become like us so one day we will become like Him in glory.

I hope you have started Lent well and will take advantage of all that our parish is offering this season: meditation booklets, the retreat March 22-26, Seder Dinner, and other things found on our website and on the table in the back of the Church.

Deacon Greg Kandra again has a wonderful way of explaining this in a 2010 talk:

“Lent is a time of penitence and confession. So today, I want to begin with a confession: I love “Undercover Boss.”

This reality show debuted on CBS right after the Super Bowl. The premise is surprisingly simple: the CEO of a Fortune 500 company agrees to spend one week living and working as an entry-level employee in his own company. He changes his name, wears a disguise, and literally goes “undercover.”

In each show, the CEOs got to experience what their employees have to put up with – indignity, long hours, low pay, sexism. But they also got to share in the spirit that sustains these workers – optimism, faith, love of family. They saw the enthusiasm and sense of humor that some people bring to even the most menial jobs. The corporate leaders ultimately left their experiences changed.

In some ways, these are small stories of redemption and conversion – and not a bad fit, really, for the season we are just beginning, the season of Lent.

The story of an “undercover boss” — the story of a powerful leader lowering himself to menial work, and enduring all the struggles, hardship and pain that go with it — that story is also the story of something we celebrate every Sunday.

It is the Incarnation.

It is the reality of God becoming man. Sharing our sufferings. Bearing our burdens. Facing our trials. And knowing, as well, our hopes and joys. Jesus did all that – he was a man like us in all things but sin, Paul wrote – and we get a vivid example of it in today’s gospel.

The Gospel today presents us with the story of Christ’s 40 days in the desert. It is more than a period of sacrifice. It is a time of testing – and temptation.

Matthew describes three particular temptations – hunger, power and immortality. Face it: those are three of the most urgent desires anyone know. And they go to the heart of who we are.

Hunger can be more than just a craving for a hamburger; there is the hunger for love, or for sex, or for attention. The human appetite is sometimes insatiable.

Power is about more than political ambition or world domination or celebrity; it is also about control, and independence -not being accountable to anyone, and being able to do what you want whenever you want, however you want.

And immortality is about more than never dying. It’s about more than having the constant protection of angels. It is also about never feeling pain, or loss, or sickness, or sorrow.

Think of what the devil is offering: total satisfaction... absolute power...complete freedom. That would be irresistible to most of us. But not to Jesus. And for one startling reason: these are all things that would deprive Christ of his humanity. In saying “no” these temptations, and not giving in to them, Christ is saying “yes” to being one with us.

He is saying: I will know what it is like to be hungry, to crave something that I can’t have. He is saying: I will know what it is like to want power, but to be powerless. And he is saying: I will know what it is to hurt, and to bleed, and to die.

And so, as his earthly ministry unfolds, he will share our hardships and frustrations, our temptations and trials. He will feel what it is like to be denied, and betrayed. He will know every kind of person. He’ll know Judas – and St. John, the beloved disciple. He’ll meet the woman at the well, and Mary and Martha. He will know our dreams, and the things that sustain us. He will see all that we are – the good, the bad, and the ugly.

He will be the ultimate “Undercover Boss.”

As we begin our journey through Lent, Luke’s gospel reminds us: we do not go into the desert alone. We go with Christ. He knows what we are living with and living without. So, turn to him in moments of temptation or need. Take his hand. Receive his strength. Look into his eyes, the eyes that have shed tears, and blinked away sweat. Ask for his help. He is God – but he is also us.

Because none of us goes into the desert alone.

The Boss is with us.”

Please join us for our monthly RISE & SHINE Mass at 9am on Sunday, March 29th.
This is a youth-friendly and youth-participatory Mass.

WEEKLY REFLECTION

First Week of Lent Year A Recognizing Evil

Genesis 2:7-9, 3:1-7
Psalm 51:3-6, 12-13, 17
Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned.
Romans 5:12-19
Matthew 4:1-11

Jesus recognized Satan when he came to tempt him in the desert. Adam and Eve in the garden did not. Can we? Temptations that work for good people are not so obvious, or good people would not fall for them. How do we recognize Satan and his temptations?

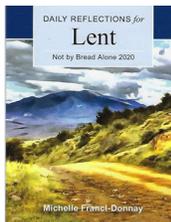

This week I will examine my decisions carefully and ponder them in the light of Jesus' teachings. If I have doubts, I will take the decisions to prayer, taking time to listen to what God wants to tell me.

RICE BOWLS

All families are invited to pick up a Rice Bowl packet in the church vestibule and join in this simple yet powerful Lenten practice.

LENTEN REFLECTION BOOKLETS are available in the church vestibule. This is a prayerful journey through lent with day by day reflections on the Mass readings.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS have been a long standing tradition during Lent. The school invites you to join the school children in the church to pray the Stations of the Cross on March 6, 13, 27, April 3; 9:50 am (primary grades) & 2:30 pm (middle school).

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of FAST AND ABSTINENCE. The law of fasting allows one full meal and two smaller ones. The law of abstinence prohibits the eating of meat. Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence in the United States.

The obligation of abstinence begins at age 14. The norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59.

WINGS SHARING SESSION

CONSOLATION MINISTRY (NEW)

At the suggestion of parishioners, a new Consolation Ministry is being formed, and we would like to invite interested parishioners to sign up to participate. When a family is planning a funeral or memorial service at St. Theresa's, they are offered the use of the meeting rooms or the Event Center for a reception following the church service. As you know this can be a very confusing and stressful time. In order to relieve the grieving family of one less detail, our Consolation Ministry members will provide homemade baked goods and coffee for any reception and will assist by setting up the meeting rooms or Event Center, and ensuring that during the reception, everything runs smoothly and as effortlessly as possible. If a professional caterer is used, Consolation Ministry members will also assist the caterer as needed with set-up, food service, etc. You can volunteer to bake, to assist with the set-up and reception, or both. When needed, an email will be sent asking for volunteers and you may choose to participate or not, as your schedule allows. We welcome any and all to this new ministry. It is a great honor to assist our fellow parishioners in their time of need, and we hope you will decide to join us. If you have any questions or would like to participate, please email Cecile Cuttitta at cecile.cuttitta@att.net.
