It seemed like we never got out of Lent last year, but here we are again! Many are tired of the strange way we have lived for the past year that none of us chose. Yet, as we begin to see some hopes arising with the vaccines available and the good practices most of us have kept, this Lent can truly be a time of renewal and reconciliation with the Lord.

Have you missed coming to be with the community for Mass? We on staff have certainly missed you and it is hopeful that we are open to welcome more people than the last three Sundays. Cathy Brady rearranged the seating plan so that we can accommodate more of you reserving a spot as Alameda County is allowing us. I understand that some will still be slow to want to return until all are vaccinated, and it is assuredly safer, but progress toward this is being made. One parishioner commented last week how good it feels to finally see and pray with friends again!

The Lenten practices offered by the parish and the participation in them is demonstrating that many are desiring a fuller and more active participation in the rituals and life of the Church. In past years, we began to question whether soup nights were working. This year with the first two weeks seeing over 200 involved, my point is made. We are blessed every day by God with abundant gifts. So, with that abundance, we heed the call to share with those who have so little or nothing. Eating a simple meal of soup and bread and contributing what we might have spent on a regular dinner allows us to follow the Lord's command to love one another and look after the poor and needy among us.

I am incredibly grateful to Paul Canales (chef extraordinaire of Duende, formerly Oliveto and Chez Panisse) who is giving his all to make soup for us each week. Sometimes it is hard to see this as a penance when the soups taste so good. A million thanks Paul!

I also shout out to all the volunteers who are facilitating getting the soup to people on Tuesdays especially Keri Nims and Jenny Bruni who crafted the idea and have made its occurrence look easy and the young parishioners who are helping get the soup out.

Fr. Ngema is bringing scripture study based on our Lenten readings to a new depth. The two presentations so far have given anyone who listened so much to think and pray about during the rest of the week. God's word is always amazing because even a passage that we have read a hundred times can give us new meaning and insight when we study it again. God's Word is alive and inviting us to listen!

Deacon Zach is presenting a retreat for the parish not over one week, but over several. Again, if we give God time and listen, we will never be disappointed. His weekly meditation on Wednesday nights is also amazing and has inflamed the Confirmation candidates like no other year. It is not too late to tune in or attend either in the weeks ahead.

Lent was originally a special time of prayer and reflection for those who were about to be baptized. May this year it be a real time for all of us to reflect on our commitment to Christ and open ourselves to Christ's call and love for each of us!

This week in earnest we begin the process of hiring a new principal for our parochial school. She or he is out there, and we pray the process guided by the diocese will bring us together for the next school year. I ask you to pray for our school and for this important search. I invite you to pray this prayer each day until a contract is signed and a new principal hired.

*O Christ, our Teacher,
You invite Your faithful people to make disciples in Your name
and to announce good news to the poor.
We thank You for the gift of Catholic schools, where the message of Your life, death, and resurrection is proclaimed,
Christian community is experienced,
service to our sisters and brothers is modeled,
and worship of You is cultivated.
Provide for us a principal whose leadership will fulfill that mission and ensure that our children and families can benefit from a high quality Catholic education.
We ask this and ask with the intercession of Mary,
Mother of Catholic Schools.
Amen.*

WEEKLY LENTEN REFLECTION

Third Week of Lent Year A Living Water

Exodus 17:3-7

Psalm 95:1-2, 6-9

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Romans 5:1-2, 5-8

John 4:5-42

Water is essential for life. Lack of it caused the Israelites to grumble and sent the Samaritan woman to the well where she encountered Jesus. Moses, acting by God's direction, provided water for the people. Jesus promised living water. What is my image of living water? How would I imagine it in my life? What do I need in my life?

We are all in need of something physically or spiritually. This week I will reach out to others to help supply their needs. I will volunteer at an organization that needs people to drive, sort, pack, distribute, or whatever needs to be done. I will help others receive what they need physically so that they can have the freedom to seek the spiritual living water.

SOCIAL JUSTICE CORNER

“Remember that nothing is small in the eyes of God. Do all that you do with love.”

– St. Therese Of Lisieux

Please join us as we support our own St. Vincent de Paul Society Conference to collect items for their Easter Basket program. SVdP will distribute baskets to 100 families who are the most vulnerable and in significant need due to the pandemic.

We will be collecting items listed below after Mass on Sunday, March 7th and Sunday, March 14th. Volunteers will be stationed by the playground area with car trunks open for collection.

For questions, please email Greg Govan at gwgovan@comcast.net.

Items needed for Easter Program:

- 75 small-to-medium-sized empty Easter baskets
- 75 small-to-medium-sized new stuffed animals
- A variety of wrapped Easter candy for 200 children
- $25 gift cards from Safeway for 100 families to purchase food

Many families in Oakland are struggling to pay utilities and meet commitments of the new moratoriums for rent. The law says that they can't be evicted due to COVID hardships but they still must maybe back what they owe. Also if there is a COVID hardship between Sept 2020 and January 2021 they must pay at least 25% of the rent due to avoid eviction. So for example a mother of 3 who is renting a small apartment for which she owes $1500/month for the last 5 months must come up with $1875 dollars now to prevent eviction. She also owes money for utilities and needs to pay car insurance. Finding work is difficult because all 3 of her kids are doing distance learning. These are the families that St. Vincent de Paul and other organizations help. St Vincent de Paul does outreach to these families and individuals to help them keep from being homeless.

The social justice committee would like to suggest that as you write your own check for rent and utilities this Lent that you consider donating $5-$10 or more toward someone else's rent and utilities. Consider writing a check to St. Vincente de Paul as they help the most vulnerable in our community of Oakland. You can drop off a check (payable to St. Theresa Church and in the memo please put St. Vincent de Paul) in the mailbox at the rectory or donate thru the link on the Flock Note.

“Remember that nothing is small in the eyes of God. Do all that you do with love.”

Third Sunday of Lent

Once when Jesus was in Jerusalem,
he found animals being sold in the temple.
He sent the sellers away because he wanted the temple to be his Father's house of prayer, not a store.
(You can read the story in your Bible at John 2:13-25.)
Look at both pictures.
Circle five extra things in the bottom one.

Psalm 25:15 says,
"My eyes are ever fixed on the Lord."
That means we should follow and look to God for help.
To remind you of this, write your name on the blank.
Color the eyes the same as yours.
Color the rest of the certificate. Cut it out and hang it up.
