A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

Lent is a season of reconciliation and renewal for the whole Church. Great gratitude is to be given to all who prepare and participate in the Synod listening sessions, the Lenten retreat, a private simple meal (maybe of soup) each week so others who have so little will have a little more, attending weekend and weekday Mass, praying the rosary or other prayers each day, and receiving the sacraments especially the Eucharist and Reconciliation. Listening to God's Word at Mass or in a small group is all part of our Lenten practices. As we heard last weekend, these thoughts, study, prayer, and actions are all done to bring us closer to God and one day to be with God forever in the Kingdom.

In the midst of our private and communal practices, the parish Social Justice committee has continued to help us along the journey. While mentioning this a couple of times recently, someone has stopped me to ask, 'what is Catholic Social Justice about?' I offer the following short summary of some of the facets for indeed, volumes exist to spell this out more clearly. The following paragraphs are from Network: Advocates for justice, Inspired by Catholic Sisters.

"Catholic Social Justice teaches us that all people are made in the image of God and so possess an equal and inalienable worth. Because of this essential dignity, each person has a right to all that is needed to allow him or her to live their full potential as intended by God. As God is love, we were created to love and be in relationship with each other. Human dignity is upheld when each person's needs are met and when he or she lives in harmony with others in a community that together pursues the common good."

Catholic Social Justice teaches us that we have a responsibility to participate in politics out of a concern and commitment to the good of the community. This means that we cannot be bystanders who scoff at the political process. Instead, we are called to vote, to inform ourselves about the issues of the day, to engage in serious conversation about our nation's future, and to learn to listen to different perspectives with empathy. This responsibility to participate means each person also has a fundamental right to participate and must be equipped with the resources needed to do so.

Catholic Social Justice teaches us to look at reality through the eyes of those who have been made poor by oppression and injustice. We do this when we join together to end poverty. People forced into poverty have the single most urgent claim on the conscience of the nation because they are denied the right to a life consistent with their inalienable dignity. The responsibility to uphold the dignity of each person means that we must judge our lifestyles, policies, and social institutions in terms of how they impact those suffering from the injustice of poverty.

Catholic Social Justice teaches us that all people are children of God, so every person belongs to a single and interconnected human family. As sisters and brothers, our needs are met in relationship with one another. When making individual and collective decisions, we have a responsibility to consider the good of the whole community over and above the interests of the few. Authorities at every level must work together for the good of the entire community. A just community is united in creating the conditions for every person to flourish and realize their full human potential as children of God.

Catholic Social Justice teaches us that work is more than a way to make a living; it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation. Work should enhance the dignity of the person by allowing all workers to express their uniqueness in a way that contributes to the common good. The community must also recognize the dignity of work by ensuring that it is justly rewarded with a living wage. As human beings are social, they have a fundamental right to organize collectively to create better working conditions for themselves and others.

God gave human beings the task of caring for and nurturing all of creation. As human beings are intimately united with all that exists, our health and well-being are dependent upon that of the earth and all its creatures. We must cultivate and care for the earth in such a way that its bounty can provide for and sustain future generations. As creation was entrusted to all of God's children, all people have an equal right to breathe clean air and drink clean water. Because those on the margins of society are disproportionately affected by environmental degradation, concern for creation is inseparable from concern for justice."

Praying for peace is another facet of who we are as a Church. I pray with you for a miracle to end the senseless killing and destruction in the Ukraine, Ethiopia, Nigeria and Cameroon and other places where Jesus' command to love one another and to even love our enemy is being opposed at great human cost. Mary, Queen of Peace, intercede for us! St. Joseph who guarded the Holy Family, guard and intercede for the innocent of every war!

Third Week of Lent Year A Living Water

Exodus 17:3-7

Psalm 95:1-2, 6-9

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Romans 5:1-2, 5-8

John 4:5-42

Water is essential for life. Lack of it caused the Israelites to grumble and sent the Samaritan woman to the well where she encountered Jesus. Moses, acting by God's direction, provided water for the people. Jesus promised living water. What is my image of living water? How would I imagine it in my life? What do I need in my life?

We are all in need of something physically or spiritually. This week I will reach out to others to help supply their needs. I will volunteer at an organization that needs people to drive, sort, pack, distribute, or whatever needs to be done. I will help others receive what they need physically so that they can have the freedom to seek the spiritual living water.

PARISH LENTEN PENANCE SERVICE

Saturday, March 26, at 3:00 pm

This service is one of the key parts of our Lenten journey. It offers us as a parish community an opportunity to come together in prayer to acknowledge the great grace of forgiveness and spiritual healing extended through the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

New this Lent.....WEEKLY PRAYER CARDS

Get your new prayer each week in the vestibule and use this, along with all the rest of the parish as your prayer for that week.

Imagine....all of us praying the same prayer together wherever we may be!

On Sunday, April 3rd at the 10:00 am Mass the Sacrament of the Sick will be administered to all those who suffer from a serious, acute or chronic illness. Caregivers are also encouraged to attend.

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Do you want to understand how the Holy Spirit is implicated in your prayer life? Are you aware of the need to respect the cardinal laws on prayer for a fruitful prayer experience? Have you really experienced the power of praise in your personal prayer journey? Well, Lent is the time to rearrange your spiritual furniture for a new encounter with God using the Bible. The above questions and much more are the issues we shall be tackling in this pastorally oriented 2022 Lenten Bible Journey that means to demonstrate how the Bible is the ultimate prayer manual.

Saying that the Bible is the ultimate manual on Christian prayer is certainly stating the obvious. But this fact may not be that evident for many Christians who earnestly want to pray and who seek guides to improve their prayer life. Manuals on prayer abound that Christians have profitably used down the ages. These manuals on Christian prayer are effective as guides for individuals and groups precisely because they are themselves guided by the sacred scriptures of the Christian faith. Of course, you do know that the Bible guides the Christian life. Now is your opportunity to understand the compelling and stimulating guide that the Bible offers in a specific area of the Christian life: prayer. Here is your chance to excavate monumental clues from the Bible to improve your prayer life. This Lent 2022, add a delicious item to your spiritual lunch tray by plunging into the ultimate manual on Christian Prayer in this year's Lenten Bible Journey with me, your priest friend, Ngema.

Water, Light, and

Life:

A Lenten Parish

Retreat

Lent is the perfect time for a parish retreat, especially this parish retreat: Water, Light, and Life! Lent traditionally focuses on baptism and on penance. During the Lenten season, the elect (those preparing for baptism, confirmation, and first Eucharist) enter their final time of intense preparation. As the baptized, we journey with them! It is our task to support them through prayer as they prepare to join us as fully initiated members of the People of God.

Our journey of conversion may begin long before we encounter the font as adults, or perhaps in the arms of our parents or godparents as infants. In either case it doesn't end there. That journey is lifelong! We never stop turning and returning to God, learning, loving, and growing more deeply in our relationship with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Through this Lenten retreat, we will focus inwardly on our personal relationship with God. As we do so, we will develop it ever more profoundly and come to understand what is meant by the call to constant conversion that marks the life of every Christian. This gathering is an opportunity for conversion, prayer, reflection, and faith-sharing for you. Mark your calendars and come join us! Please contact the parish office if you have questions.
