Bishop's Appeal 2021

St. Theresa Parish Goal - $35,800

<https://www.oakdiocese.org/bishops-appeal-donation-page>

Catholic News Services reports: “In a new Apostolic Letter entitled Patris corde (“With a Father’s Heart”), Pope Francis describes Saint Joseph as a beloved father, a tender and loving father, an obedient father, an accepting father; a father who is creatively courageous, a working father, a father in the shadows.

The Letter marks the 150th anniversary of Blessed Pope Pius IX’s declaration of St Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church. To celebrate the anniversary, Pope Francis has proclaimed a special “Year of St Joseph,” beginning on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception 2020 and extending to the same feast in 2021.

The Holy Father wrote Patris corde against the backdrop of the Covid-19 pandemic, which, he says, has helped us see more clearly the importance of “ordinary” people who, though far from the limelight, exercise patience and offer hope every day. In this, they resemble Saint Joseph, “the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence,” who nonetheless played “an incomparable role in the history of salvation.”

Saint Joseph, in fact, “concretely expressed his fatherhood” by making an offering of himself in love “a love placed at the service of the Messiah who was growing to maturity in his home,” writes Pope Francis, quoting his predecessor St Paul VI.

And because of his role at “the crossroads between the Old and New Testament,” St Joseph “has always been venerated as a father by the Christian people”. In him, “Jesus saw the tender love of God,” the one that helps us accept our weakness, because “it is through” and despite “our fears, our frailties, and our weakness” that most divine designs are realized. “Only tender love will save us from the snares of the accuser,” emphasizes the Pontiff, and it is by encountering God’s mercy especially in the Sacrament of Reconciliation that we “experience His truth and tenderness,” – because “we know that God’s truth does not condemn us, but instead welcomes, embraces, sustains and forgives us”.

Joseph is also a father in obedience to God: with his ‘fiat’ he protects Mary and Jesus and teaches his Son to “do the will of the Father.” Called by God to serve the mission of Jesus, he “cooperated... in the great mystery of Redemption,” as St John Paul II said, “and is truly a minister of salvation”.

At the same time, Joseph is “an accepting Father,” because he “accepted Mary unconditionally” — an important gesture even today, says Pope Francis, “in our world where psychological, verbal and physical violence towards women is so evident.” But the Bridegroom of Mary is also the one who, trusting in the Lord, accepts in his life even the events that he does not understand, “setting aside his own ideas” and reconciling himself with his own history.

Joseph’s spiritual path “is not one that explains but accepts” — which does not mean that he is “resigned.” Instead, he is “courageously and firmly proactive,” because with “Holy Spirit’s gift of fortitude,” and full of hope, he is able “to accept life as it is, with all its contradictions, frustrations and disappointments.” In practice, through St. Joseph, it is as if God were to repeat to us: “Do not be afraid!” because “faith gives meaning to every event, however happy or sad,” and makes us aware that “God can make flowers spring up from stony ground.”

Joseph “did not look for shortcuts but confronted reality with open eyes and accepted personal responsibility for it.” For this reason, “he encourages us to accept and welcome others as they are, without exception, and to show special concern for the weak”.

Patris corde highlights “the creative courage” of St. Joseph, which “emerges especially in the way we deal with difficulties.” “The carpenter of Nazareth,” explains the Pope, was able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting in divine providence.” He had to deal with “the concrete problems” his Family faced, problems faced by other families in the world, and especially those of migrants.

In this sense, St. Joseph is “the special patron of all those forced to leave their native lands because of war, hatred, persecution and poverty.” As the guardian of Jesus and Mary, Joseph cannot “be other than the guardian of the Church,” of her motherhood, and of the Body of Christ. “Consequently, every poor, needy, suffering or dying person, every stranger, every prisoner, every infirm person is ‘the child’ whom Joseph continues to protect.” From St Joseph, writes Pope Francis, “we must learn... to love the Church and the poor”.

In his letter, Pope Francis notes how, “Every day, for over forty years, following Lauds [Morning Prayer] he has “recited a prayer to Saint Joseph taken from a nineteenth-century French prayer book of the Congregation of the Sisters of Jesus and Mary.” This prayer, he says, expresses devotion and trust, and even poses a certain challenge to Saint Joseph,” on account of its closing words: “My beloved father, all my trust is in you. Let it not be said that I invoked you in vain, and since you can do everything with Jesus and Mary, show me that your goodness is as great as your power.”

Ezekiel 37:12-14

Psalm 130:1-8

With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

Romans 8:8-11

John 11:1-45

God promised through Ezekiel that God would put God's spirit in us so we could live. We are promised life through Jesus. This should make a difference in the way we live. Jesus wants us to live life to the fullest of our humanity.

Do I have the courage to live fully in the Spirit of Jesus? This week I will try to understand what that means for me. Maybe it means having the courage to truly love someone. Maybe it means stepping out of my comfort zone to help someone. I will remain open to opportunities this week and follow through when they come.

SOCIAL JUSTICE CORNER

“Remember that nothing is small in the eyes of God. Do all that you do with love.”

– St. Therese Of Lisieux

Thank you for supporting our own St. Vincent de Paul Society’s collection for their Easter program. St. Vincent de Paul will distribute these to families who are the most vulnerable and in significant need this year due to the pandemic. Blessings to you all for the donations.

Many families in Oakland are struggling to pay utilities and rent. Many men and women are sleeping in tents on our streets in Oakland. These are the people that St. Vincent de Paul and other organizations help. St Vincent de Paul does outreach to these families and individuals to help feed, clothe and shelter them. Take a look at their website if you are interested in volunteering for questions please contact Greg Govan for more information gwgovan@comcast.net

The social justice committee would like to suggest that as you write your own check for rent and utilities this Lent that you consider donating $5-$10 or more toward someone else’s rent and utilities. Consider writing a check to St. Vincente de Paul as they help the most vulnerable in our community of Oakland. You can drop off a check (payable to St. Theresa Church and in the memo please put St. Vincent de Paul) in the mailbox at the rectory or use the parish Online Giving.

MAY 2ND ~~~~~ 4:00-5:00 PM

ST. T’S SUNDAY SUPPER A VIRTUAL COMMUNITY FUNDRAISING EVENT

Please mark your calendars and plan to join our St. Theresa Community for an online event celebrating the extraordinary accomplishments of the past year and looking ahead to brighter days when we are all back together on campus.

The event will be hosted by Emily Quinn, Emcee and auctioneer, Oakland-based mom, and all-around fun personality. Our virtual program will feature appearances by St. Theresa School and Diocese leadership and will recognize the tremendous work our teachers, administration and families have done to educate our children despite this year’s challenges. We will honor our upcoming eighth grade graduates and finally, raise money to support our school through a virtual paddle raise appeal and limited live virtual auction (pending donations). You are invited to register for this live virtual program beginning March 31st on our website, <https://paybee.io/@sttheresa>

PRAYER FOR A SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.
 Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,
 Come spiritually into my heart.
 I embrace you as if you were already there And unite myself wholly to you.
 Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.
