A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

Happy Father's Day to all the dads, grandfathers, godfathers, and those who have exhibited a father's care in our lives. It is most appropriate that today's secular celebration falls on the Feast of Corpus Christi. Jesus reminds us of as he gives us the gift of the Eucharist that we are God's daughters and sons. He gives us the 'Our Father' as a way to pray which may also help us understand the gifts and blessings God gives us as God's children.

St. Cyprian, a bishop, and martyr, writes about the Lord's Prayer: "How merciful the Lord is to us, how kind and richly compassionate! He wished us to repeat this prayer in God's sight, to call the Lord our Father and, as Christ is God's Son, be called in turn sons and daughters of God! None of us would ever have dared to utter this name unless he himself allowed us to pray in this way. And therefore, dear friends, we should bear in mind and realize that when we call God our Father we ought also to act like sons. If we are pleased to call him Father, let him in turn be pleased to call us his children.

Therefore, we should live like the temples of God we are, so that it can be seen that God lives in us. We go on to say, may your name be hallowed. It is not that we think to make God holy by our prayers; rather we are asking God that his name may be made holy in us. Indeed, how could God be made holy, he who is the source of holiness? Still, because he himself said: Be holy, for I am holy, we pray and beseech him that we who have been hallowed in baptism may persevere in what we have begun. And we pray for this every day, for we have need of daily sanctification.

A MESSAGE FROM DEACON EDDIE

St. Theresa's, I hope this message finds you well at the beginning of this summer!

As for my part, I am thriving thanks to the parishioners of St. Theresa's! You have played a big part of forming me as a deacon. Every time we have shared in some part of the life of the community, your faith and goodness have encouraged me always!

My first year as a deacon at St. Theresa's has been a lot of firsts... serving at mass after in which Jenny and Chris Bruni graciously hosted my friends from Texas after my diaconate ordination, assisting at baptisms, first communion, and confirmation that Cathy Brady and Rob Cakebread walked me through all things liturgical, preparing for the Rise and Shine masses/homilies with Keri Sims, participating in school events such as celebrating St. Theresa's feast day and attending the fundraiser in which principal Alicia Orregon and numerous teachers/staff/parents meticulously planned, helping with the parish retreat with Laura Bennett and the retreat crew (Sharon, Cindy, Bob, Nina, and Lydia), eating meals with the Fijian community and Bishop Peter, the list goes on and on as events precious, people's names/faces innumerable, and gifts so generous at every turn.

Last but not least, I thank Frs. Bob, Abraham, and Ngema who have been so kind to me in allowing me to be a part of all that I could. St. Theresa's is so blessed to have three wonderful priests!

Furthermore, St. Theresa's is blessed to have the gift of... you!

As I move from Berkeley to the South Bay, I will continue hold you all and all your intentions in my prayers. I hope to return to St. Theresa's every once in a while, especially to celebrate a mass of thanksgiving after my priestly ordination in June 2023. Wherever my ordination will be, you know you will have an invite there.

Please continue to pray for me, to continue to be formed into a joyful priest who invites others to love God and God's people more fully and deeply!

Christ's blessings,

Dcn. Eddie Ngo

The mercy of God gave us Jesus who gives us himself in the Eucharist to accompany us along the way. The Spirit will guide us if we open our hearts daily to receive God's love and guidance. As we conclude a school year and summer vacations begin, I pray you will be surrounded by God's love and the love shown by our mothers and fathers will be concrete reminders of that love. I also pray as we emerge from isolations, mask wearing, and other precautions that our celebration of the Eucharist together may strengthen us as individuals and as a faith community.

We say thank you to Deacon Eddie Ngo who will continue to work for his degree but in Santa Clara over this next coming year. He presents a few words to us as he moves to his next assignment and assures us that he will come back to celebrate a Mass at St. Theresa next June after he is ordained a priest. Eddie's presence and insights have been a blessing for many this past year. In the fall we will welcome another Jesuit seminarian and I will introduce him when we get closer to that time.

I will take a summer break beginning next week going to that favorite island far away. Last year before I knew what ailed me, I thought that trip would revive me. I look forward to that happening this year and hope all of you will also have ways and trips that will renew you in these coming summer days.

SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE (SJC) CORNER

We invite you to take a look at Catholic Relief Services' Catholic Social Teaching 101 videos.

The videos bring the themes of Catholic social teaching to life and inspire us to put our faith into action. <https://www.crs.org/resource-center/CST-101>. The fifth video is "Option for the Poor and Vulnerable". Think about how you put faith into action in your community.

Please join the Social Justice Committee as we pray for how we go forward in our works of Charity and Social Justice.

There is much need in our world right now. Take a look at the compassionate work of Catholic Relief Services, World Central Kitchen and Doctor's Without Borders on their websites.

How you can help the Buffalo and Uvalde communities. Go Fund Me does have a Verified Hub to support families. You can also look at the "Buffalo Together Community Response Fund."

Uvalde community will likely be setting up similar funding sites.

Take a look at the American Academy of Physicians and their policy statement about gun safety as a public health issue.

Remember to take a look at St. Vincent de Paul "Current Needs" section to see the very real needs in our Oakland Community. Remember "love is small, faithful acts."

Please send us your ideas for Social Justice works at St. Theresa. Our meetings are on the 2nd Wednesday of the month. Currently we are still meeting via Zoom. Next meeting is July 13th at 7pm. Send an email to get zoom link. You can email: Lydia Deck at ltdeck@me.com for more information too!
