A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

As you might have heard me at the end of the 10am Mass last Sunday, the parish through your ongoing generosity helped Fr. Tegha and Fr. Ngema when Fr. Tegha's mom passed away so suddenly and they needed to make an unscheduled trip to Cameroon.

When they asked me if I could help, I asked Fr. Ngema to give me a breakdown of costs that would be incurred. He indicated that besides the expensive airfare, there were mortuary costs, hospital costs, and food costs for those who would come to the funeral. Fr. Ngema told me $10,000 would be a ballpark number.

In Cameroon, I just learned that when someone dies all who attend the funeral expect dinner from the family (not just cookies and coffee). Two thousand people attended Fr. Tegha's mom's funeral over a period of nine days. And the family and friends were expected to feed everyone each day.

In addition to printing prayer cards, programs, and other fees, the odd to us situation exists that when travelling on roads one can encounter 'independent armed militias' who require some compensation (bribe) before they will allow passage. On one road Fr. Tegha encountered six sympathetic groups who would not allow the group free passage. On the day of the funeral the two-armed groups were given a 'donation' to leave town and leave the funeral gathering in peace.

Because of this situation, Fr. Tegha said I could not say or print in any form the amount we had set out to raise. Word spreads fast across the world and if someone in Cameroon saw that amount, both priests' lives would be in mortal danger. So, I kept this amount to myself. When many of you generously gave about five thousand, I used parish funds to make up the remainder as Fr. Ngema carried all this in cash on his person. (He explained that bank fees there would take at least half of the amount if we were to give a check.)

Now that I can speak more openly about this since both are safely back in the U.S. to continue their work toward doctorates, I ask that anyone who can help me make up what I gave from the parish budget to do so. You can use online giving or write a check and simply put a note that this is for the support we gave Fr. Tegha and Fr. Ngema this spring. As always and as you heard Fr. Tegha mention, your ongoing generosity is amazing! May God bless your generosity a hundred-fold!

Two weeks ago, we celebrated the feast of the Transfiguration. This passage from the Office of Readings on that day I think is something to contemplate especially as we pray these weeks and hear in the Gospel, Jesus saying he is the Bread of Life:

From a sermon on transfiguration: St. Anastasius of Sinai

"Therefore, since each of us possesses God in his heart (each time we receive Communion and hear God's Word) and is being transformed into his divine image, we also should cry out with joy (as Peter, James and John did on Mt. Tabor): It is good for us to be here—here where all things shine with divine radiance, where there is joy and gladness and exultation; where there is nothing in our hearts but peace, serenity and stillness, where God is seen. For here, in our hearts, Christ takes up his abode together with the Father, saying as he enters: Today salvation has come to this house. With Christ, our hearts receive all the wealth of his eternal blessings, and there where they are stored up for us in him, we see reflected as in a mirror both the first fruits and the whole of the world to come."

School starts all around us this week and here at St. Theresa's next week. Please pray for a safe, healthy, virus free school year for all students and all teachers and administrators. With our construction, we are already aware of special challenges for our school which I will write more about next week. Please remember them and all impacted by fires and smoke.

Have a week filled with God's blessings and love!

Commemorating the death of someone we love can bring bittersweet emotions, at best. We hope that they are with God. We hope we will be with them again someday. Today we confirm our belief that a human being, Mary, shares in Christ's total victory over death. So can our loved ones, and so can we. ?

California Eviction Moratorium extended to September 30, 2021

Governor Gavin Newsom signed legislation to extend the state's eviction moratorium through September 30, 2021 and clear rent debt for low-income Californians that have suffered economic hardship due to the pandemic. California will significantly increase cash assistance to low-income tenants and small landlords under the state's $5.2 billion rent relief program to now cover 100 percent of past-due and prospective rent payments, as well as utility bills for income-qualified tenants.

Our Parish Conference of St Vincent de Paul will continue to help our neighbors in need, including assisting those who qualify for California's rent relief program to apply for and receive these State funds.

If you know of anyone in need requiring assistance, please refer them to our Conference.

Our Parish SVdP Conference meets bimonthly, every third Saturday at 9:30am. Our next meeting is July 17. If interested in learning more about our Conference's work, contact Judy Bojorquez at jtsbojorquez@yahoo.com to be added to email distribution and with any questions you might have.

God's Word for Children

August 15
Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Sin brings death into the world, but Jesus brings life!
Paul reminded the Corinthians to rely on Christ and on God's forgiveness of sins.

To find out what he said,
draw lines to match the beginning of the words (on the left) to their endings (on the right).
For help, look at 1 Corinthians 15:22.
The first one has been done for you.

When Mary came to visit her cousin and called out to her, the baby inside Elizabeth jumped for joy!
Finish the picture of these women by following the instructions.

A. Draw hands and feet on Mary.
B. Finish writing the word "Blessed" above Elizabeth.
C. Put smiles on both their faces.
D. Color your picture however you like!

CATHOLIC CORNER

THE SEVEN JOYS OF MARY

We observe the solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary on August 15. This feast celebrates our belief that Mary was taken ("assumed"), body and soul, into heaven. Mary is the first person to share fully in Christ's promise of the Resurrection. The Assumption is one of the most important feasts of Mary celebrated during the church year.

The Assumption is one of the Seven Joys of Mary, seven events in her life that filled her with joy. They continue to bring joy to all those who honor Mary and love her Son, Jesus. The Seven Joys are named here. Read the scripture passage that tells the story of each event and talk about it with an adult in your family. On the lines next to each one, describe in your own words the reason for Mary's joy.

1. The Annunciation (Luke 1:26-38) _____
2. The Visitation (Luke 1:39-56) _____
3. The Birth of Jesus (Luke 2:1-20) _____
4. The Epiphany (Matthew 2:1-12) _____
5. The Presentation of Jesus (Luke 2:22-38) _____
6. The Finding of Jesus in the Temple (Luke 2:41-52) _____
7. The Assumption of Mary (Declared a dogma of the faith by Pope Pius XII, 1950) _____
