A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

Congratulations to the sixteen young women and men who received the Sacrament of Confirmation on Friday, September 25! The afternoon was sunny and getting hot. The candidates had to wait a few extra months, but we are enormously proud of them and look forward to seeing them when we can again see each other together at Church for Mass and other celebrations. As fully initiated Catholics, we look forward to seeing them as lectors, eucharistic ministers, CYO coaches, members of the pastoral council and other groups that meet and as young team members of the ongoing Confirmation program.

This was the second outdoor ceremony on our parish property. The incline of the parking lot and other spaces does not lend itself to these outside Masses and other celebrations that you might be seeing or participating in at other parish sites. Hopefully by the time you read this, Alameda County will again be allowing some limited groups in the church for Mass and the celebration of the other sacraments.

This coming Saturday, we will celebrate First Communion for the young children who have been delayed due to the pandemic and confinement we have been keeping. Several families presented their child to receive at a Sunday Mass during the three weeks we could welcome people back into the church. We are not sure as I write this whether these upcoming ceremonies will be outside or inside the church. No matter what, we congratulate these patient children and look forward to seeing them join us again and again for Mass and Communion!

This weekend would traditionally be the weekend to celebrate our parish patron, St. Theresa and as we have done over the past few years, enjoy time with each other with food, music, and the energy of being together. We are trying to do some of this via Zoom since we cannot yet gather as a year ago. Thanks to the choir members who will sing for us today and the volunteers and parish staff who are facilitating the festival.

Last week the bishop asked sixteen of the pastors in Oakland and Berkeley to meet via zoom. It was good to see each other and to hear about how our neighbors are doing as we try to navigate these times. What I heard again and again was how we clergy and staff miss your presence. You have been demonstrating the same emotion over these months. All are hungering for a time to again be able to celebrate Mass together. All seem to have amazing generosity that is sustaining these challenging times and keeping parishes and parish staff in solid financial shape. I picked up a few ideas if this confinement continues for us and ask that we continue to pray that the pandemic will be better controlled and even put behind us soon.

Last week, I started to raise some issues for all to consider as we prepare to vote in the upcoming election. My friend, Fr. Ron Schmit, the pastor of St. Anne's Parish in Byron has written nine longer commentaries on the social justice issues the Church has always put forth as we exercise our citizenship as Christians. I do not have the space to put all his words in our bulletin, but encourage you to google the St. Anne, Byron website if you are interested in reading them. They will give you a wealth of resource to contemplate as you decide how you will vote. Please plan to exercise that duty.

I also direct you to the USCCB.org website. Several years ago, the entire bishops conference wrote a paper entitled Faithful Citizenship. It is well worth reading and it has been updated every couple of years to be more accurate about the issues we are facing today in our country and world. Since it is a dated document, America magazine recently had a wonderful article written by one of the authors of Faithful Citizenship, John Carr. He writes and makes the case that the intent was not to use the document to narrowly address one issue but was written as broad guidance for us. As Catholics, the guidance of the Church may make the task of voting more comprehensive. Again, I encourage you to read up on all the issues we face especially all the social issues as mention by Fr. Ron in his presentations and the bishops.

There is so much more. As I caution my Canon Law class, just because someone says they are Catholic, they may not be speaking with the support or approval of the whole Church. As we are being warned about foreign influences in our free democratic election, so please beware of sites that may not have the backing of the Church behind them as they claim to put forth church teaching.

I hope to see you today at the parish festival. Be assured of my prayers for you and your intentions and my continued missing of seeing you in person.

WALK-UP HOLY COMMUNIONFOLLOWING THE 10:00 AM LIVE-STREAM MASS

The communion station will be at the tent on the side of the church. We ask that you line up using the social distancing markers in the yellow cross walk. Family units may remain together. Volunteers will assist and direct you to the communion stations and then direct you to your car.

Masks MUST be worn at all times. Please use a hand sanitizer before receiving communion. Family groups who live together and arrive in the same car are welcome to receive together. If you are wearing gloves, you must remove them before receiving Eucharist. It is preferred that you receive the Host in your hands for the time being.

After receiving Holy Communion, there will be a table where you may pick up a bulletin and a basket for your Sunday offering, and then please return to your car and depart. The church will not be open for individual prayer during this time.

WINGS ~ WOMEN IN GOD'S SPIRIT

WINGS is back on October 14th. This faith enhancement group for women encourages spiritual growth through prayer, Scripture study, life sharing and community. We will meet on Wednesdays on the Zoom platform from 9:15-11:15am for the rest of this year. Our engaging speakers will uplift you and keep you informed. You'll experience a welcoming community as we support each other in our spiritual growth. Invite a friend! Women from local parishes and other denominations are welcome! If you were a member last year you will automatically receive a Zoom invitation. If you're new to WINGS or wish to sample a meeting, send your email address to Nancy Midlin midlin.nancy@gmail.com. She will send you the link to Zoom.

The theme for the year is:

PRAYER FOR A SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,

Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there

And unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Berry Fruity Dessert

- Ingredients:
- 2 cups frozen strawberries
 - 1 1/2 cups water
 - 1/2 cup honey
 - 2 TBS lemon juice

- Directions:
1. Partially thaw berries. Mix all the ingredients in a blender for 1 minute on high speed.
 2. Scoop ice cream into bowls and cover with fruity topping.
 3. Enjoy!

Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus told a parable about people in a vineyard who threw out the son of the owner and killed him. Then Jesus quoted Psalm 118, saying, "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone" (Matthew 21:42). The son in the story and the stone represent the same person, the one who has become our Savior.

Unscramble the letters under the sawhorse to spell the two-word answer in the stone above.

Paul told his Christian brothers and sisters to think about good things (Philippians 4:8). The words below describe the kind of thoughts we should have. Look up, down, and across to find and circle them.
