A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

Well it was not as any of us would have planned, but the annual 'parish festival' is history. Special thanks to the parish staff and member of the pastoral council that made it work as best it could under the continued ongoing pandemic circumstances.

A huge shout out to the members of the choir! I do not think you will ever hear them sing The Hills are alive with the sound of music in church, but they sounded amazing when they gathered properly distanced in the school yard to be with us. The choir members have in fact been meeting every week virtually. Besides exhibiting the joy of singing praise to God, they exemplify the joy we have when we gather for Mass and other moments at the parish that unite us. This was the first time they were able to do it in person and my prayer is that it will not be long before all of us can gather in person again for Mass.

Alameda County is being extremely cautious. We will not be allowed to come together for Mass indoors for a couple of weeks. When we are able, each of you must decide whether you are ready personally to join us. The bishops have continued to dispense us from this physical attendance, but they remind us that this does not dispense us from regular prayer. I know I have prayed more than ever for you and your intentions over these days.

We sincerely thought this situation would be just for a couple of weeks. Then it turned into a couple of months and we were consoled when we saw Italy open in just three months. Now we are going on eight months here with no return to 'normal' in sight. As we change clocks on the 31st and approach the 'holiday season', we might take the time now to reflect on how these annual rites we love must change because of this terrible plague that seems to keep going on.

Over these months, I have been asked on more than one occasion the question 'is God sending us a message?' I know God will always be compassionate, forgiving and loving. I know God understands our sorrow and moments close to despair as we lose loved ones, encounter illness ourselves or in others, and tire of this new way of life. I do not think God is deliberately testing us or teaching us, but it is an opportunity to think about what is important, nurturing, and life giving for our own lives and for those we love and the whole world.

Pope Francis on the feast of St. Francis has sent the world a letter (encyclical) that may offer good food for considering the above questions and our whole situation. It is entitled: Fratelli tutti (Dear sisters and brothers). It can be found online by simply putting in the name or even putting in 'Francis, papal encyclical'. I have been able to read a couple of the chapters and hope to finish by the time you are reading this. It offers many good insights about our world, the political systems that are supposed to serve the common good of all and addresses very directly social situations that currently hamper our path to God. I strongly urge you to read it. Going forward with some online discussion groups, it will give us a lot to discuss. Stay tuned to announcements when we might do this.

Pope Francis gives us a broad guidance as we consider who we will vote for as election day will soon be upon us. He is clear, no candidate perfects our beliefs or our morality. He also affirms that no one issue can be the test for our vote. We have to weigh all the issues that are present so we can weigh them and then vote. Again, I offer the guidance from our California bishops who have commented on several of the propositions we will vote on as well as the national issues that challenge our democracy at this time.

The teaching of an encyclical is what a pope uniquely does, and I encourage all to use it for the glory and honor of God and the benefit of our common good at this time.

WALK-UP HOLY COMMUNION*FOLLOWING THE 10:00 AM LIVE-STREAM MASS

The communion station will be at the tent on the side of the church. We ask that you line up using the social distancing markers in the yellow cross walk. Family units may remain together. Volunteers will assist and direct you to the communion stations and then direct you to your car.

Masks MUST be worn at all times. Please use a hand sanitizer before receiving communion. Family groups who live together and arrive in the same car are welcome to receive together. If you are wearing gloves, you must remove them before receiving Eucharist. It is preferred that you receive the Host in your hands for the time being.

After receiving Holy Communion, there will be a table where you may pick up a bulletin and a basket for your Sunday offering, and then please return to your car and depart. The church will not be open for individual prayer during this time.

PRAYER FOR A SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,

Come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you as if you were already there

And unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

The parish staff is once again preparing for the reopening of church for public Masses and we need additional volunteers to assist at the Mass. Thank you to all who have volunteered in the past and those who are currently assisting with Walk-Up Communion.

The Public Mass will be on Sunday at 10:00 am and will continue to be live-streamed.

There were approximately 20 people who volunteered to help for the few weeks we had public Masses in June and July and we are in need of additional people to assist. For each service we must have a minimum number of volunteers to be sure all the health and safety requirements are in place before, during and after the service. Having enough volunteers is the only way we will be able to get back to some kind of regular schedule. There are 15 volunteer positions that need to be filled for Mass. Please prayerfully consider volunteering.

THERE ARE THREE TEAMS YOU MAY VOLUNTEER FOR

Church Team:

- ◆ Check-in parishioners
- ◆ Usher
- ◆ Set-Up before and Tear-Down following Mass

Cleaning Team:

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Everyone is invited into the kingdom of God through Jesus Christ.

To explain this idea, Jesus told a story about a king who gave a feast (see Matthew 22:1-10). Use the clues to decide which man is the king. Draw a crown on him.

1. He has a beard. 2. His arms are stretched out.
3. He is smiling. 4. He has sandals on.

It's a good idea to exercise daily to strengthen our bodies. It's even more important to ask God every day to fill us with inner strength!

Look inside the jump rope. Darken out all the lowercase letters. When you're done, you will find what Paul discovered (Philippians 4:13) It's true for us, too!
