A WORD FROM OUR PASTOR

I pray you all had as good a Christmas as possible during this ongoing pandemic time. As I write this last year with an extra early deadline, the good news is that in some states the peak has been reached and with vaccines getting into more and more bodies, a clear end is beginning to emerge.

Many thanks to all of you for your ongoing support at the end of the year and your personal greetings and gifts to me and members of the staff. You are truly a gift for us!

Holy Family Sunday follows Christmas and some reflections on joining ourselves to the example and protection of the Holy Family may offer more consolation as we still are confined. Once again, I offer some edited words from Deacon Greg Kandra.

"I'm struck every year by the timing of this feast, celebrating the Holy Family. It comes on the first Sunday following Christmas, and this year especially many of us have started to overdose on family. But then comes this feast. We are challenged to look at what it means to be family. And our eyes turn toward the Christmas crèche, the nativity scene.

During this time of year, we tend to sentimentalize the Holy Family – they become figures of plaster and paper, not flesh and blood. But we forget: they weren't that different from us. They were holy, yes. But they were also human. The story of the Holy Family is the story of life not always turning out the way you expected. It's the story of a teenage mother, conceiving a child before she was married. It's the story of an anxious father, confronting scandal, planning on divorce. It's the story of a family forced to become refugees, living as immigrants in the land that once held their ancestors as slaves. As we heard in today's gospel, it's the story of a missing child, and days of anxious searching by his parents.

But there is even more. Mark's gospel describes an incident in which the relatives of Jesus were so alarmed, they thought he had lost his mind, and set out to seize him. Not long after came his violent death – one his mother watched with helplessness and almost unimaginable sorrow. This family was holy. But it was also human. We need these reminders. Especially now.

The Church calendar shows us that the Christmas season is one of light – but also of shadow. The day after Christmas, we celebrate the feast of the first martyr, St. Stephen. Then a couple days later, we mark the feast of the Holy Innocents, the children slaughtered by Herod. The joy of Christ's birth is suddenly tempered by tragic reminders of what the Incarnation cost. And the Holy Family shared in that.

If you look at most churches and where the nativity scene is placed, notice that but a few feet away is the crucifix, and the scene of the dying Christ. In the stable, the mother Mary looks down at a life beginning; at the foot of the cross, she looks up at a life ending. It is just a few steps here from the wood of the manger to the wood the cross. But in so many ways, the two singular events are inseparable. One led inevitably to the other. Joy and sorrow are almost side by side, linked by sacrifice, by faith, and by love. It is the story of our salvation. And it is the story of the Holy Family.

The juxtaposition of those two images in the church, the crèche and the crucifix, serves as a powerful lesson for this feast. We realize that when we speak of the Holy Family, we speak of a family that struggled and suffered, like so many of us.

But: this family also knew profound hope. They trusted completely in God. They call all of us to that kind of trust. And they are with us. In our own time, they stand beside all who worry, who struggle, who search, who pray.

The Holy Family stands beside parents anxious about their children, worrying for their welfare. They walk with immigrants and refugees separated from those they love. They comfort teenage mothers and single parents. They console the prisoner, the outcast, the bullied, the scorned—and the parents who love them. And they offer solace and compassion to any mother or father grieving over the loss of a child.

This Christmas, they weep with many because we could not be together or because over 300K have died.

The Holy Family shares our burdens. But they also uplift us by their example. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph were never alone. They endured through the grace of God. They prayed. They hoped. They trusted in God's will. We might ask ourselves where we can find that kind of peace and purpose in our own families, in our own lives.

One answer is in Paul's beautiful letter to the Colossians. This passage that we hear today is sometimes read at weddings. Like Paul's Letter to the Corinthians, it speaks eloquently of love. But Paul wasn't writing about romantic love. This letter is about how to form a healthy and holy Christian community. And from his words, we can draw lessons about how to form a healthy and holy Christian family.

Put on compassion, Paul tells us. Kindness. Lowliness. Meekness. Patience. Forgiveness. And love. It is all that simple — and all that difficult. I'm sure the Holy Family had moments when living those virtues seemed hard, or even impossible. But they did things most of us don't. They listened to angels. They dreamed. And they gave themselves fully to God.

They made of their lives a prayer. When we find ourselves overwhelmed, we need to remember where we look today and remember to look toward the crèche. There is our model for living: Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. But we need to see them in full, remembering the closeness of the cross. That was their life and it's ours, too. Yet, through all their hardships, in a time of anxiety and difficulty, persecution and tragedy—a time very much like our own—they showed us how to be people of faith, people of forgiveness, people of love. They show us, in other words, how to be holy."

Please continue to have as best a holiday as you can. Happy New Year! May the coming year bring all good health, peace, and reunion for all.

WINGS ~ WOMEN IN GOD'S SPIRIT

WINGS resumes on January 6, 2021, with the Winter season devoted to the study and sharing of Scripture. This faith enhancement group for women encourages spiritual growth through prayer, Scripture study, life sharing and community. We will meet on Wednesdays on the Zoom platform from 9:15-11:15am until further notice. Our engaging speakers will uplift you and keep you informed. You'll experience a welcoming community as we support each other in our spiritual growth. Invite a friend! Women from local parishes and other denominations are welcome! If you're new to WINGS or wish to sample a meeting, send your email address to Nancy Midlin midlin.nancy@gmail.com. She will send you the link to Zoom. The theme for the year is:

ST. THERESA SCHOOL

The St. Theresa Student Leadership Team has embraced the challenges posed by learning at home. Gone are the opportunities to lead the student body in prayer, pledge, and announcements, as they do each morning on the playground. No more meetings twice a week before school in Mr. Maas's ice cold classroom. The team, made up of 19 6th, 7th, and 8th graders, has been serving their school virtually. Each week, a set of videos are posted to YouTube that provide morning assembly. Every Wednesday, the Titan News Network puts out a newscast full of fun activities and pictures sent in by students. Last week's newscast featured close to 100 pictures from students showing their houses decorated for Christmas. The team members continue to work hard to bring a sense of normalcy to the most abnormal of school years.

The 7th grade has done their part as well. The 7th graders traditionally lead the middle school in an Advent Prayer Service each Monday during Advent. Every 7th grader contributed clips, and a virtual service was created and shown to each middle school religion class. They continue to meet the challenges of distance learning head on, remaining diligent students eager to serve their school.

NEW YEAR'S DAY MASS AT 10:00 AM

Mass will be live-streamed on the St. Theresa Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/sttheresaok>
The Mass is not open to the public.

Walk-Up Holy Communion will be offered following Mass.

WALK-UP HOLY COMMUNION

FOLLOWING LIVE-STREAM MASSES ON NEW YEAR'S DAY AND SUNDAY 10:00 AM MASS

Communion will be distributed in the church vestibule following the live-stream Mass. We ask that you line up using the social distancing markers on the steps and blacktop. You will be ushered one person at a time into the vestibule for communion. Volunteers will be there to assist you.

Masks MUST be worn at all times. Please use a hand sanitizer before receiving communion. If you are wearing gloves, you must remove them before receiving Eucharist. It is preferred that you receive the Host in your hands for the time being.

After receiving Holy Communion, there will be a table where you may pick up a bulletin and a basket for your Sunday offering, and then please return to your car and depart. The church will not be open for individual prayer during this time.

PRAYER FOR A SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,
Come spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there
And unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

SOCIAL JUSTICE CORNER

Let's celebrate hope by keeping it simple. Let's live gently on the earth.

Advent is a time of hope and waiting for the coming of Jesus, who came to give us abundant life. In this Advent season, we invite you to reflect on the difference between the “abundant life” offered by Jesus and the “good life” promoted by society which says in order to be happy, we must always have more (money, possessions, and power). Living the abundant life often corresponds to living gently on the earth. This Advent, learn ways to live life more abundantly that will also heal the earth. Check out Ignatian Solidarity Network Advent Calendar on their website.

GOD'S WORD FOR CHILDREN!

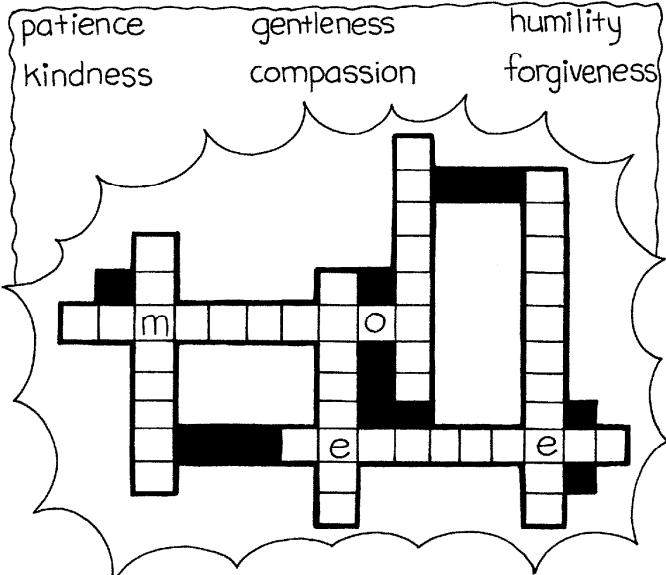

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

As children of God, we want people to see certain traits in us.

Some of the qualities we should strive to practice are listed here.

Work to fit them in the crossword.

OUR WORLDWIDE FAMILY

Today we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. It was a small family, only three people, but they loved each other very much. They set an example for how families should live. How many people make up your family?

Thinking about being part of a family of one point two billion people! (That number looks like this—1,200,000,000, or 1.2 billion.) That's how many people belong to the Roman Catholic family. You became part of that family at your baptism.

Which place has the most Catholics? The fewest?

Africa: 177 million • Asia: 137 million • Europe: 277 million • Latin America: 483 million
North America: 85 million • Oceania: 9 million

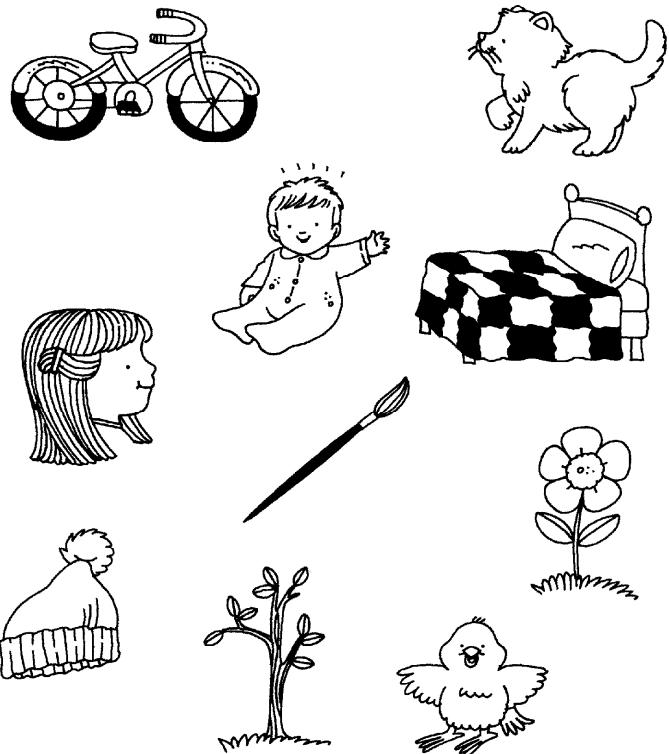

This is a good day to think about our worldwide Catholic family. Imagine all these sisters and brothers! We share many things in common. We use many different languages but celebrate the same Mass and the same sacraments. We believe the same things about God and our Church. Our very large family is called to be holy like the Holy Family. We are called to love one another. How can we show our love for all these people who live on the other side of the world?

Like all good families, we also show our love and concern for people outside our own family. There are over 7 billion people in the world. How can we show our love for everyone?

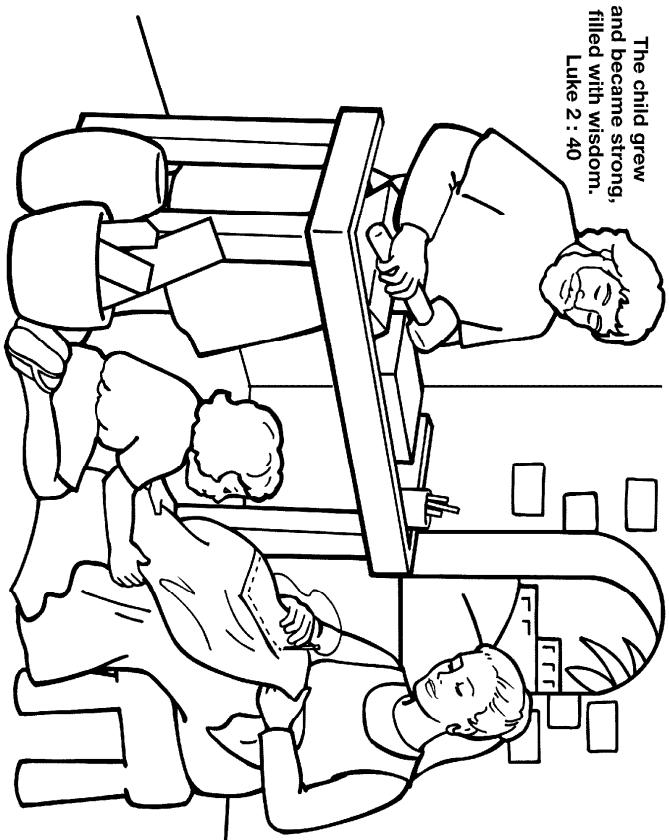

One thing we can do is pray for them. Find a map of the world and trace the continents and areas named here. Cut out each continent or area and write the number of Catholics who live there inside the outline. On the weekends, when you eat dinner with your holy family, put the picture of one of the continents in the middle of your table. Say a prayer for all the people in our Catholic family who live far from you.

The scriptures tell us that Mary and Joseph took Jesus home to the town of Nazareth, where he grew and became strong and wise. Circle all the living things below that can grow!
